Schedule 1299-B Instructions

See Illinois Schedule 1299-S, Enterprise Zones, Foreign Trade Zones, and Sub-Zones, for a list of the enterprise zones and foreign trade zone/sub-zones in Illinois, as well as their definitions.

=Note If you are filing an Illinois combined return, complete one Schedule 1299-B for the entire unitary business group.

Part I — Enterprise Zone or Foreign Trade Zone/Sub-Zone Dividend Subtraction

You may claim a subtraction modification for dividends received from a corporation that

- conducts substantially all of its business operations in an Illinois enterprise zone or zones, or
- is designated by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) as a "High Impact Business" and conducts business operations in a federally designated foreign trade zone/sub-zone located in Illinois.

Note You may deduct 100 percent of these dividends that are included in Illinois base income. However, dividends eligible for the enterprise zone subtraction are not eligible for the foreign trade zone/sub-zone subtraction.

See the instructions below for the type of federal return you file.

U.S. Form 1120 filers —

Line 1a — Write the amount from U.S. Schedule C, Line 9.

Line 2 — Follow the instructions on the form.

Part III — Interest Subtraction -

Form IL-1120 financial organizations only

A financial organization, as defined in the Illinois Income Tax Act (IITA), Section 1501(a)(8), may subtract any interest income received during its tax year from a loan made to a borrower, but only to the extent the loan is secured by qualified property* that is eligible for the enterprise zone or high impact business investment credit.

*Qualified property is property that is tangible, depreciable pursuant to IRC, Section 167, has a useful life of four or more years as of the date placed in service in Illinois, and is acquired by purchase as defined in IRC, Section 179(d). Qualified property can be new or used but cannot have been previously used in Illinois. Such property includes buildings, structural components of buildings, and signs that are real property. It does not include land or improvements to real property that are not a structural component of a building, such as landscaping, sewer lines, local access roads, fencing, parking lots, and other appurtenances.

Any improvement or addition made on or after the date the enterprise zone was designated or the business was designated as a high impact business is considered to be qualified property to the extent that the improvement or addition is of a capital nature, which increases the adjusted basis of the property previously placed in service in Illinois, and otherwise meets the requirements of qualified property.

Line 1

Column A — Write the name of the borrower eligible to claim the enterprise zone or high impact business investment credit on its Illinois tax return.

Column B — Write a description of each item of qualified property used to secure the loan.

 ${\bf Column}~{\bf C}$ — Write the year the borrower claimed or will claim the credit on the qualified property.

Column D — Write the name of the foreign trade zone/sub-zone or enterprise zone in which the property used as security is located.

Column E — Write the basis of each item of property listed in Column B, used to compute the depreciation deduction for federal income tax purposes.

Column F — Write the amount of the loan.

Column G — Write the interest received for the loan during the tax year.

Column H — Divide each entry in Column E by Column F (cannot exceed one), and multiply the result by Column G.

Line 2 — Follow the instructions on the form.
