You should file this schedule if

- you paid income tax to another state on income you earned while you were a resident of Illinois; and
- you did not deduct any income tax paid to another state from federal taxable income on U.S. Form 1041, Line 11, or you did deduct it from federal taxable income, but you added it back on Illinois Schedule M, Other Additions and Subtractions (for businesses), Line 5, and
- the base income subject to tax in another state is included in the amount shown as Illinois base income (Form IL-1041, Line 26).

You should not file this schedule if

- you did not pay income tax to Illinois and another state on the same income; or

- you took a deduction on U.S. Form 1041, Line 11 for taxes paid to another state, but did not add back this amount on Illinois Schedule M, Line 5; or
- you are trying to take a credit for the Michigan Single Business Tax.

For purposes of this schedule, "state" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, or political subdivision of any of these (e.g., county, city). The term "state" does not refer to any foreign country.

Note If you have received any employee compensation (i.e., salary received as income in respect of a decedent) from a source in Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, or Wisconsin, refer to the instructions for Form IL-1040 (Individual Income Tax Return), Schedule CR (Credit for Taxes Paid to Other States) for rules concerning compensation in states with reciprocal agreements.
