

General Information

Who must file Form IL-56?

In general, Form IL-56, Notice of Fiduciary Relationship, is used when you are acting in a fiduciary capacity for a taxpayer who is unable to execute a Form IL-2848, Power of Attorney (POA), because of death or legal disability. Form IL-56 should be completed at the time a fiduciary relationship is created or terminated for

- an individual,
- a decedent's estate,
- a receiver in a receivership proceeding,
- a trust,
- a bankruptcy estate,
- an assignee for the benefit of creditors, or
- a terminating entity.

Note: A fiduciary relationship can only be established for a terminating entity (i.e., corporation, partnership, or trust) prior to the entity's termination date. This allows the fiduciary to represent the entity on all tax matters after it is terminated.

In most cases, for a taxpayer's fiduciary to discuss confidential tax information with an Illinois Department of Revenue (IDOR) representative, Form IL-56 must be filed with IDOR. If you are calling IDOR to discuss a business tax account (e.g., withholding income tax, business income tax, sales and use tax, etc.), you may not need to file Form IL-56. In most of these circumstances, IDOR phone representatives can discuss these tax accounts after verifying certain security information.

In an administrative hearing or at the Independent Tax Tribunal, a fiduciary acting on behalf of a taxpayer must be shown as the fiduciary on the Form IL-56 filed with IDOR. The fiduciary must be an attorney to act for a taxpayer at an administrative hearing or other preliminary proceedings, including status calls and pretrial.

This form also may be required in order to have a fiduciary act on the taxpayer's behalf during certain IDOR proceedings, such as audits, certain collection actions, tax liability settlements, or a legal proceeding.

When must I submit Form IL-56?

You should file this form only when

- you are required to represent the taxpayer in matters before the Illinois Department of Revenue (IDOR), or
- IDOR has requested it.

What must I attach to this form?

You must attach satisfactory evidence of the authority (e.g., copy of will, certificate of court showing your appointment and qualification, or certified copies of instruments creating the trust) to act in a fiduciary capacity to Form IL-56.

If you complete Step 4, you must attach satisfactory evidence of the termination or revocation of the prior fiduciary relationship.

Form IL-56 may be considered invalid if any of the following is missing, incomplete, or incorrect:

- taxpayer information,
- identification numbers,
- tax types,
- tax periods,
- taxpayer, POA, or witness or notary signatures or dates, or
- any additional required information.

When does Form IL-56 expire?

Unless revoked or withdrawn, Form IL-56 will expire automatically 10 years from the date signed by the fiduciary.

How can a fiduciary be replaced?

To replace a fiduciary, a newly-filed Form IL-56, with the following steps completed, must be submitted and approved.

- Step 1 - listing the new fiduciary
- Step 2 - including documentation verifying the termination and new fiduciary appointment
- Step 4 - listing the fiduciary to be replaced
- Step 5 - signed by the new fiduciary

How does a fiduciary withdraw their representation?

If a fiduciary wants to withdraw their representation of the taxpayer, the fiduciary must submit a new Form IL-56 with Steps 1, 4, and 5 completed.

Will I ever need to submit both Form IL-56 and Form IL-2848, Power of Attorney (POA) to IDOR?

You must submit both Form IL-56 and Form IL-2848 if the person granting the POA is a fiduciary of the taxpayer and a third party will be representing the taxpayer in proceedings before IDOR.
