Dear:

This letter is in response to your letter dated April 17, 2013, in which you request information. The Department issues two types of letter rulings. Private Letter Rulings ("PLRs") are issued by the Department in response to specific taxpayer inquiries concerning the application of a tax statute or rule to a particular fact situation. A PLR is binding on the Department, but only as to the taxpayer who is the subject of the request for ruling and only to the extent the facts recited in the PLR are correct and complete. Persons seeking PLRs must comply with the procedures for PLRs found in the Department's regulations at 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110. The purpose of a General Information Letter ("GIL") is to direct taxpayers to Department regulations or other sources of information regarding the topic about which they have inquired. A GIL is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120. You may access our website at www.tax.illinois.gov to review regulations, letter rulings and other types of information relevant to your inquiry.

The nature of your inquiry and the information you have provided require that we respond with a GIL. In your letter you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

We are a STATE based lessor that leases medical equipment mainly to veterinarians, doctors and dentists. The lessees are located in Illinois. We do two types of transactions.

The first type of contract in question will have monthly rental payments and have a bargain purchase option of $1 at the end of the lease term, (which many states then consider the transaction to actually be a Conditional Sales Contract).

The second type of contract will have monthly rental payments and have a Fair Market Value residual, and the lessee will have the option of buying the equipment at the end of the lease term or returning the equipment (which many states consider the transaction to be a true lease).

Our question relates to the payment of sales tax. Is the sales tax in each of these scenarios due UpFront or on the rental stream? If the tax is due UpFront, is the tax due on the Equipment Cost or on the Gross Receivable?

Can you please provide us with a ruling on the above?

DEPARTMENT'S RESPONSE:

The Illinois Retailers' Occupation Tax Act imposes a tax upon persons engaged in this State in the business of selling tangible personal property to purchasers for use or consumption. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.101. In Illinois, Use Tax is imposed on the privilege of using, in this State, any kind of tangible personal property that is purchased anywhere at retail from a retailer. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.101. These taxes comprise what is commonly known as "sales" tax in Illinois.

The State of Illinois taxes leases differently for Retailers' Occupation Tax and Use Tax purposes than the majority of other states. For Illinois sales tax purposes, there are two types of leasing situations: conditional sales and true leases. A conditional sale is usually characterized by a nominal or one dollar purchase option at the close of the lease term. Stated otherwise, if a lessor is guaranteed at the time of the lease that the leased property will be sold to the lessee, that transaction is considered to be a conditional sale at the outset of the transaction. Persons who purchase items for resale under conditional sales contracts can avoid paying tax to suppliers by providing certificates of resale that contain all the information set forth in 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.1405. All receipts received by a lessor/retailer under a conditional sales contract are subject to Retailers' Occupation Tax. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.2010. The lessors/retailers generally owe Retailers' Occupation Tax on any installment payments when they are received by the lessors/retailers. The lessees/purchasers owe corresponding Use Tax on the amount of the installment payments that are collected by the lessors/retailers.

A true lease generally has no buy out provision at the close of the lease. If a buy-out provision does exist, it must be a fair market value buy-out option in order to maintain the character of the true lease. Lessors of tangible personal property under true leases in Illinois are deemed end users of the property to be leased. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.220. As end users of tangible personal property located in Illinois, lessors of a true lease owe Use Tax on their cost price of such property. The State of Illinois imposes no tax on rental receipts. Consequently, lessees incur no tax liability.

As stated above, in the case of a true lease, the lessors of the property being used in Illinois would be the parties with Use Tax obligations. The lessors would either pay their suppliers, if their suppliers were registered to collect Use Tax, or would self-assess and remit the tax to the Department. If the lessors already paid taxes in another state with respect to the acquisition of the tangible personal property, they would be exempt from Use Tax to the extent of the amount of such tax properly due and paid in such other state. See subsection (a)(3) of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.310.
